BREED THEATRE

Harold Lockwood and May Allison in a Picturization of Robert W. Chambers' Novel "The Hidden Children" Feature for Wednesday and Thursday. Four Shows Decoration Day at 1:30, 3, 7 and 8:30—All Seats 10c.

As a special holiday attraction for Wednesday and Thursday the Breed theatre will present Harold Lockwood and May Allison in a powerful picturization of Robert "A. Chamber's great novel "The Hidden Children." a Metro wonderplay in five gripping acts. This is one of the most timely motion picture attractions of the year. With the great crisis confronting the United States and the spirit of American patrioties masserting itself, along comes a big patriotie American picture piay with two big stars. "The Hidden Children" is a story of American Colonial days. If portrays of a wery interesting sermon Sunday in services and sermon Sunday in services are successed by the executive officer to do the active registration are: Soen O. Dahllof, John A. Leahy, Arthur Mott, Arthur H. Mathewson, Fred W. Tillinghast, Howard E. Main, William Barr, Eradford W. Danibason and W. Franklin Sheldon. It is possible that two or three more may assist for a part of the day.

All the above named persons donate their services and there will be no expense for labor in the town of Plainfield.

Deputy Sheriff Eliven will also assist in the work.

MOTORCYCLE RACES DECORA-TION DAY

One of the Features of the Meet Will be the Side Car Race.

Plans have been definitely settled on by the Connecticut Amusement Association for the program to be held at the Fair Grounds Decoration Day.

One of the best things that will be 'pulled off' will be the side car race and everyone who has ever seen one will appreciate this fact. Manager Tendleton stated vesterday that there rendicton stated yesterday that there is a 135 pound limit on the side var occupint, fixed by the American Federation of National Motor Cycles. The cars weighs about 110 pounds when stripped down for racing. There will surely be five or six machines in the side car race", said Mr. Fendleton, "and possibly more." This should prove one of the real cards of the prove one of the real cards of the prove one of the real cards of the program, although of course it will not be the whole thing.
